Preface

I feel relieved and happy to present this piece of work acquired after rigorous research and scrupulous study of the aspects of providing the best possible material for students. I have a strong faith in the quality of the book and take pride to assure the readers of effective results. All the pains and inconvenience occurred in the process of writing this book was belied by the mystical ecstasy brought to me by writing the concluding words of the book.

Academic and Creative English is primarily designed for college -students to cultivate their academic and creative faculties but it is highly resourceful for other students also irrespective of standard and level. The book is equally beneficial for the professionals who wish to hone up their presentation and communication skills.

I express my sincerest gratitude towards the entire intellectuals and scholars whose works have been consulted to enrich the quality of this book. I also remain thankful to all those who have contributed to this book by any means. We hope to be fortunate enough to receive criticism and suggestion from the kind readers, which will help us, improve as a writer, and further help in enhancing the quality of the book as well.
